

VALUE EDUCATION PROGRAMME – CLASS V C & V D

Theme: "SEVEN SISTERS – MANY FACES, ONE INDIA"

As part of the Value Education Programme, the students of Classes V C and V D of Don Bosco Senior Secondary School, Nerul, presented an inspiring and thought-provoking assembly on the theme "Seven Sisters – Many Faces, One India." The programme aimed to create awareness about the rich culture, heritage, diversity, and national importance of the North-Eastern states of India while promoting the values of unity, respect, empathy, and patriotism.

The programme was graced by the esteemed presence of the Reverend Fathers, the Principal, the Headmistress, teachers, parents, and students. It commenced with a warm welcome by the student anchors, followed by an engaging introduction to the Seven Sister States of North-East India and their significance in the cultural fabric of our nation.

A powerful skit formed the highlight of the programme. Through the story of a new student from Assam, the audience witnessed how stereotypes and misconceptions can hurt individuals. The performance beautifully conveyed the importance of respecting every Indian regardless of appearance, language, or region. Students confidently showcased the unique features, culture, traditions, geography, wildlife, festivals, and contributions of each of the Seven Sister States through informative presentations and creative role play.

The programme was further enriched with a virtual interview segment featuring people from the North-East, helping the audience understand their experiences and encouraging empathy and inclusion. Students also paid tribute to renowned sportspersons such as Mary Kom, Mirabai Chanu, Jeje Lalpekhlua, and Dipa Karmakar, along with brave soldiers including Captain Neikezhakuo Kenguruse, Major Bob Khathing, and Jaswant Singh Rawat, highlighting the immense contribution of the North-East to India's progress and security.

The assembly concluded with a heartfelt message that India's greatest strength lies in its unity in diversity. The students effectively conveyed that every culture deserves respect and that understanding one another builds a stronger and more united nation. Their confidence, excellent presentation skills, teamwork, and sincere efforts were appreciated by everyone present.

The programme was efficiently coordinated under the guidance of Tr. Pushpalata and Tr. Gangotri, whose meticulous planning, constant encouragement, and dedicated efforts ensured the smooth execution and grand success of the event. The programme concluded with words of appreciation from the dignitaries, who applauded the students and teachers for presenting a meaningful and impactful programme that celebrated India's diversity while reinforcing the values of unity, respect, and national pride.
